(Operated by Imune under contract to QX-Eclosion Ltd.)

~~Issue 1.0 20th May 2006: Initial~~

~~Issue 2.0 17th June 2006:~~

Issue 3.0 19th June 2006.

1. It is possible to scroll thru the test, to go back and check and change answers.
2. The pass mark is 100%. Access to the test is available until you get 100%. After this access will be disabled. You do not need to apply again to have access.
3. Since it is time consuming to do this and requires perseverance that I think it is unreasonable to ask for you to take it again. So: if you achieve 95% then I will (on IMUNE's and not necessarily QX's behalf) accept that you send an email to admin@imune.net with
4. either
  - a. a corrected response and reason why you got it wrong.
  - b. an explanation of why you think your answer is correct rather than have you take the whole test again.

5. The results and question answers are available immediately on submitting.
6. The browser buttons on your screen will be frozen: it is not possible to copy the questions.
7. The system records each access and each question access:
8. In accessing this test remember that you have submitted an ethics agreement.
